☐ Yes → Go to Q2 ☐ No → Go to Q4

Q2. Is anyone currently receiving long-term care services?

☐ Yes → Go to Q3 ☐ No → Go to Q4

* Those who answered “Yes,” you must complete the necessary procedure with the Long-Term Care and Senior Services Division within 14 days.

Q3. Is anyone planning to move into, or currently residing in, a designated long-term care facility (Jūshochi Tokurei Shisetsu)?

☐ Yes → Go to Q4 ☐ No → Go to Q4

* If you are unsure whether the facility is subject to the special residence rule, please consult the service counter staff.

Q4. Is anyone currently enrolled in National Health Insurance (NHI) or covered under the Late-Stage Elderly Medical Care System (75+ elderly)?

☐ Yes → Go to Q5 ☐ No → Go to Q5

* If you are double-enrolled in both NHI and Employee Health Insurance, procedures must be completed before moving out. Please be sure to notify a service counter.

Q5. Has the entire household agreed to this registration change?

☐ Yes ☐ No

* If “No,” the registration change notification may not be accepted.

* Changes to the head of household or household composition may affect tax amounts and insurance premiums.

* Kikugawa City does not permit married couples living together to be registered as separate households.

* If you have any questions, please speak with a service counter staff.

* Depending on the circumstances, you may be directed to the appropriate division.

I confirm that I have reviewed the above information.
